HORSES GO FASTER IN EVERY HEAT.

GREAT RACING WILL BE SEEN
HERE WEEK AFTER NEXT.

Constant Campaigning Has Put the Flyers on Edge and Fitted Them For Killing Races—Flying Jib is Worthless—Johnston a Winner—Other Horse News.

Janesville is getting to be a great race town and no mistake. The second meeting of 1894 will come off the last of this month and that the contest will be more spirited, if possible, than those of last June, goes without saying for some weeks and are hardened for bruising work. Time in all the classes is getting faster each day and while Monbars has been winning, 40 pacing races in 2:20 McHenry has to drive in 18 or less now. There will be no "green ones" to fool the pool experts and disgust the crowd with bad actions and long scoring. They have all been through the mill and are in the pink of condition.

Flying Jib was distanced by Robert J at Saginaw yesterday in a very fast race and the Inter Ocean says that the Algona pacer is now practically worthless for racing purposes and McDowell is as helpless with him as was John Kelly last year.

Jackson I. Case's Jenny K. is not the money winner this year that she was last. At Saginaw yesterday she made a poor appearance and was drawn. The Case stable did not come to Janesville this spring for the first time in some years.

Minnie Monroe, the Mark Monroe mare who has frequently contested on the Janesville track won the 27 class pure at Mendota, Ill., yesterday in the slow time after Kalena and Nettie B. had won heats.

Johnston is Still Winning Races.

Johnston, the phenomenal 19 year old free for all pacer, who was sired by H. S. Woodruff's Joe Bassett asserted himself at the Toledo, O., meeting yesterday and won the purse for his class in 2:13, defeating Major Wonder and three others. Bassett blood seems to stand the test of years.

Janesville people will remember a trim built grey gelding called Strontia who was driven to victory by a colored man in a red hot race at the Janesville track last fall. Strontia, driven by the same man Purdy, won the 2:18 class purse at Davenport, Iowa, yesterday after losing two heats. The best time was 1:61.

When Grattan, a coal-black Wilkes Boy horse was driven onto the Janesville track last fall, many people said he was the handsomest horse they ever saw. He was a beauty, and Driver Turner said he was as good as he looked. This seems to be true so far, and although the equine Apollo did not get the money in Janesville, he won the 2:16 class purse at Fond du Lac yesterday after laying up the first heat. John C. Chadwick's Myrtle was in the same race but didn't get a place. Prince H., Kaba F., Winnie H. and Aurora Prince, all of whom have trotted here, were the other contestants.

Rowdy Joe, the Telegraph gelding who acted so badly that he had to be drawn from the 2:40 pacing competition here last June, was "at himself" at Fond du Lac yesterday, and won the purse for that class in straight heats, the best time being 2:15. Rowdy Joe is very fast, but he is a bad scorer, and hops and jumps about like a jack rabbit when he doesn't feel right. Eight scores did not get him down to business here, so the driver, J. B. Hawkins, drew him.

They are going very fast this year, and in the grand circuit a horse has to get a heat or two to get any money. H. D. McKinney's good two-year-old, Coupon, won the colt race for that age at Minneapolis the other day in good time.

SCHOOL COAL IS $2 A TON CEAPER

Board of Education Makes a Contract With John W. Carpenter—Plans Discussed.

Janesville school board will pay John W. Carpenter $5.89 per ton for coal to warm the city school buildings the coming winter. This is $2.08 less than the price paid last year, and the school board congratulates the public at being able to conclude such a favorable contract. Six bids were opened at a special meeting of the board last night. The bids were:

P. A. Maguire, per ton..... $6.59
John Flawright..... 6.18
A. W. Buggs..... 6.40
J. W. Carpenter..... 5.89
Wm. Baggis..... 6.40
J. W. Hodgdon & Co..... 6.19

The plans for the new high school building were discussed, but no conclusion was reached. Two members—Commissioners McLean and Weisend—were absent, and the board postponed final action until this evening. "I think the members of the board have narrowed the choice down to two plans," said one of the commissioners last evening, after the meeting. "The Holbrook and Chandler plans appear to be favorites now."

SUED OVER BROKEN CURBING.

Dispute Grows From the Paving of South River Street.

There was strife over a South River street curbstone today. The stone was claimed by the contractors, P. W. Ryan and John Brown, and also by the owners of abutting property. In preparing the streets for paving, the contractors dug out the defective curbstones, piling them up on the sidewalk, intending to remove them to some convenient place later.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock yesterday C. T. Wright took possession of the blocks that lay in front of his property and put them in a safe place, the boys all having a laugh at the expense of the contractors. Today things changed somewhat. The contractors took legal proceedings to recover the stone, Chief of Police Acheron serving the papers. The stone is hardly worth the cost of a law suit, and the boys who have been interested now begin to realize that some one will have to pay legal bills that will quite offset the stone.

THE JANESVILLE BOND ISSUE.

City Attorney McElroy Explains This to the Milwaukee Sentinel.

City Attorney McElroy makes this statement to the Milwaukee Sentinel: "In the article in The Sentinel of today upon the issue of bonds by the city of Janesville, you say it is understood that the city of Janesville has issued bonds under the authority of Chapter 311 and Chapter 324 of the Laws of 1893. Will you permit me to correct you in this? The city of Janesville has issued bonds to the amount of $55,000 to provide for the construction of a school building, but these bonds have been issued under the authority granted by Sections 942 and 943 of the Revised Statutes, and not under either of the laws of 1893."

MILTON NEWS AND GOSSIP.

Janesville Hospital Patient Remembered in Substantial Fashion.

MILTON, July 13.—The lawn social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Bliss on Tuesday evening was a social and financial success, and the ladies who had it in charge are to be congratulated. It was for the benefit of Miss Maggie Scullion, who is inmate of the Janesville City Hospital, and was formerly a resident of this village. A goodly number of the charitably disposed people of Milton Junction patronized the entertainment. Professor N. Wardner Williams, director of music in the University of Chicago, and Allie Williams, his brother, a student in the university, are visiting friends here. They prefer a country residence just at present, rather than their Chicago home. W. A. Thompson who has been doing local work on the Telephone, left Wednesday for a few weeks' visit at Madison and Sparta. The young ladies mentioned in last issue as camping at Tillman park are at Rose park. The raspberry crop still holds out, but was decreased by the drouth. Mrs. Milton C. Whitford and Miss Birdie Davis left Wednesday for New York where they will visit their father. O. W. Spaulding and family are camping at Clear Lake. Mrs. Alice Green, of Nile, N. Y., who has been spending some time with Milton relatives, started for her eastern home Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Crandall accompanied her and will visit friends in the east for a month or more. Mrs. Nellie P. Whitford, of Appleton, is the guest of Milton friends. Elijah Hadson and Wealthy Aymer, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Aymer, on Wednesday. Rev. W. T. Miller officiating. Congratulations are in order. John L. Fuller, manager of the telegraph office at Duluth, has been called here by the dangerous illness of his mother. Owen Mullen and wife, of Chicago, are visiting at the old home-stead. Owen is employed in a packing house at the stock yards and thinks it is a good time to rusticate. A horse stepped on Oliver Fridell's foot Tuesday and drove a toe cask through his toe nail, but he is at work just the same as of yore. Milton people have been buying one hundred daily papers each day since the big strike has been on, an evidence that they intend to keep posted. Lou Brown, agent of the St. Paul company at Clear Lake, Iowa, and wife, are enjoying a two weeks' vacation with Father Smith up in Harmony. Rev. E. M. Dunn and wife were at Lake Geneva this week. Professor E. B. Shaw is attending the Madison summer school. Harvey Olmstead and wife are residents of the village. He is a blacksmith, from North Johnston. At the republican caucus held here Thursday, the following were elected as delegates to the county convention which meets next Monday: W. W. Clarke, P. Marquart, K. Killam, C. S. Button, W. H. Davidson, A. D. Frink, W. H. Morgan, E. C. Sholes.

CHERRY PICKING IN PORTER.

Crop Short and the Work All Done By 9 In the Morning.

PORTER, July 13.—Last Monday was cherry picking day at Leroy Fessenden's. So many people came and the crop was so poor that all the cherries were picked at 9 a. m. Another little girl came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Case on July 7. The school board in the Lennan district have decided to retain the services of Miss Abbie McCarthy as teacher for the fall term, she having given much satisfaction in her work. Mr. and Mrs. John Mooney, of Edgerton, were visitors on Sunday. Stephen Dooley and daughter spent Saturday and Sunday at the former's parental home in Dayton. A little girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Boyle, July 4. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nichols rejoice over the arrival of another daughter at their home on July 5. All doing well. Dennis McCarthy has been quite ill. Dr. McManus is attending him.

CENTER HAY IS A SHORT CROP.

Drouth Played Mischief With the Fields—Liberty Pole to Be Raised.

CENTER, July 13.—Haying is pretty nearly through with here and is no average crop on account of the dry weather. Pastures are also getting short. Mrs. C. S. Crow, and daughter have been the guests of Mrs. Mae Fuller. There was quite a large delegation here from Milton to hear the A. P. A. lecture by Professor Simms. Miss Beulah Hodgdon of Janesville, is the guest of Miss Lottie Dean at Pleasant View farm. William Elert and Miss Dora Case surprised the townspeople here by getting married Saturday. Arrangements are being made to have a liberty pole erected here. It will be placed near the Grange hall and will be 150 feet high. It will be bought by subscriptions. P. H. Torpy will receive all donations. The Fourth of July passed off here in a becoming manner, the calithumpians being one of the main features of the day. The speech by Professor Simms was greatly appreciated. It is very seldom that the people here have the privilege of listening to such a burst of oratory as they did on this day. Emma Whitmore is home where she will spend her vacation at her father's.

LABOR PLENTY IN EMERALD GROVE

Average Wages About $1.25 This Harvest—Barley Is Being Cut.

EMERALD GROVE, July 13.—Day laborers seem to be as numerous as the demand for help. Wages average about $1.25 a day. The hot dry winds of the past week have brought on the barley harvest in a hurry. A few have finished cutting and the entire crop is ready. Haying time overlapped the barley cutting with many this year. The roads are very dusty and a good rain would do corn and tobacco a world of good. T. F. Duncan of Chicago, is visiting his grandparents, Hon. and Mrs. Andrew Barless. Fly time is here again. Before you buy fly nets notice what Gillies & Jones have. Price all right. Rev. Samuel Plantz of Detroit, Mich., stopped over on his way to Appleton in order to see his parents, last week. Thomas Jamieson of Poynette, Wis., made a few calls on old neighbors in this vicinity recently. Mr. and Mrs. A. X. Robertson and family of Ravenwood, Ill., are enjoying their annual outing at the McArthur's.

India's Woman Lawyer.

The first and only lady lawyer of India is Miss Sorabji, a clever Parsee. She was induced to study law by her desire to help her country-women, who are forbidden by religion and custom to receive legal advice from men. The young woman won academic honors in India, and afterward went to England and studied at Oxford, where she was successful in her work and became a protegee of the late master of Balliol. Many a time, on Sunday evenings, it is said, when Dr. Jowett toddled slowly into the college concert in the hall, at the head of his party, he was followed by her lithe, graceful figure in picturesque sari, the native dress of Parsee women.

PEACE IN THE YARDS AND TRAINS ON TIME

CONSIDERABLE LIVESTOCK
BEING SHIPPED.

Buyers Can at Last Get Transportation to Chicago—George Charlton Tells of His Experience in Being Conveyed Into the Stock Yards By U. S. Cavalrymen.

Everything continues to move smoothly in and around the Janesville railway yards. Both passenger and freight trains arrive and depart on schedule time, and freight of all kinds is now being received at the freight depots. Considerable live stock is being shipped to Chicago, not only from Janesville but from all stations in this district. George Charlton took ten carloads of stock to Chicago yesterday.

"Talk about exciting times around the Chicago stock yards," remarked Mr. Charlton this morning, after his return home. "You ought to have seen the yards yesterday. The excited crowd however, keeps away from trains. Our train was met about four miles out yesterday by a troop of twenty-five regular cavalrymen, who conveyed our train to the yards, the cavalry riding on either side of the train, keeping the crowd at a good distance away from the road. The road is picketed by cavalrymen and infantry for some distance out of the city, the last four miles being heavily guarded by regular and state troops. There is considerable excitement about the stockyards, many fearing the trouble has not ended."

BARLEY CUT IN SOUTH CLINTON.

Rodgers were chosen at the caucus last Saturday to go to the convention at Janesville on the 18th. Miss Louisa Hanson has returned to Janesville after a few days' visit. Misses Eugei and Stevens of Beloit, are visiting at Mrs. N. O. Newhouse's. A large number from Chicago, Beloit and other towns spent the Fourth in South Clinton.

SENATORIAL CONVENTION.
A republican convention in and for the Seventeenth senatorial district, will be held at Brodhead on Tuesday, the fourth day of September, 1894, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of re-nominating a candidate for state senator and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention. Each voting precinct in the district will be entitled to one delegate in the convention.
J. B. TREAT,
IRA U. FISHER,
HANS QUALE,
Committee.

TWO UNDER A CLOUD.
Neither Pullman nor Debs will come out of the Chicago trouble with much credit. There seems to be no doubt that the palace car magnate was running his Chicago shops at a loss. Public sympathy over this is tempered however, by the belief that he could well afford to run them at a loss as long as such a course kept rent paying tenants in all his Pullman houses. The money he lost on his car contracts was a bagatelle compared to what he made by keeping the shops running and thus insuring rent collections, water tax and gas bills.
All this may have justified one man or five hundred men among his employes in quitting work. To quit was their privilege. But why should it justify Debs and his lieutenants in demanding a strike of Milwaukee plasterers and Janesville carpenters? Work is none to plentiful this year and the men who give up their jobs out of loyalty to a hare-brained walking delegate are the men to whom sympathy is due, while their leaders are entitled to nothing but censure.

DOUBT ABOUT SUGAR
It is known that the president stands with the house on the sugar question, and it said he is using his influence for that side. On a recent "poll" of the members of the house an overwhelming majority of them declared in favor of free sugar, refined as well as raw. Unquestionably, at least three out of every four of the people want that policy to prevail. If the house stands its ground the bill may fail, for the senate shows no sign of receding. Most of the eastern democrats would be glad to see the bill defeated on account of the income tax provision, but this feature will not provoke any fight in the conference committee, as the house placed it in the bill. The president is also hostile to this provision, but he will undoubtedly sign the bill if it reaches him. In the wrangles between the two branches on important questions surrenders on one side or the other or on both sides are generally made, and some sort of a compromise is likely to be arrived at on the tariff bill which will allow it to become a law.

The country will not fail to notice that the house is represented in the conference with the senate on the tariff bill by four southern men, it having been determined not to admit the republican conferees until the thing has been entirely settled. The injustice of this arrangement needs no comment.

A single county in Pennsylvania had to pay $3,000,000 for the damage done during the railroad strike riots in 1877. The taxpayers of Cook county, Ill., will probably have a larger bill than that to pay for Debs' strike.

As a trust-smasher Attorney Olney has not been a brilliant success, but when it comes to maneuvering the regular army he is as much at home as he is on a tennis court.

Senator Hill is, it is said, to be formally excommunicated by the democrats of the senate. Hill ought to be able to stand it if the democratic party can.

Wonder if Hon. Wayne MacVeagh will get leave of absence and come home to help his brother, Frank, throw stones at that senatorial plum?

SOME WELL KNOWN FACES
General Daniel H. Hastings.
General Daniel Hartman Hastings, Republican candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, is of Scotch-Irish parentage. He was born in Clinton county, Pa., 45 years ago and was a schoolteacher at 14. In 1875 he was admitted to the bar. In 1888 he was a delegate to the Republican national convention at Chicago and placed Senator Sherman in nomination for the presidency. General Hastings entered the militia in 1877, and in 1884 he was elected colonel of the Fifth regiment. In 1887 he was appointed adjutant general of Pennsylvania. He had charge of the relief corps at Johnstown after the great flood of 1889. General Hastings was married in 1877 to Miss Jane Armstrong Rankin.

Our Harbor In Samoa.
Our commercial interests in Samoa are not very large at present, but the strategic importance of Samoa is universally recognized, and the necessity of maintaining our naval and coaling station at Pago Pago is generally regarded as the principal consideration that induced the United States to enter into and continue the joint protectorate with Germany and England. Pago Pago was ceded to the United States in 1872 by a treaty made with King Maunua. This harbor is said to be the most remarkable one in all Polynesia. It is about two miles long and will average one-third of a mile in width. It is easy to approach and enter for vessels of any size, and the water inside is deep and without any obstructions whatever.

Alabama's Gubernatorial Contest.
The nomination of Colonel William C. Oates for governor of Alabama in the Democratic convention at Montgomery closed one of the liveliest preliminary canvasses in the history of the party. Reuben F. Kolb, the farmers' candidate, who is Colonel Oates' chief opponent, was defeated after a hot contest by Governor Jones two years ago. He is conducting an active campaign now, and its activity and interest will wax until the polls close on Aug. 6. Colonel Oates is now serving his seventh term in the national house of representatives. He was an unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor in 1872. Mr. Oates is a native Alabamian and was born in Abbeville Nov. 30, 1835. Reuben F. Kolb, the Populist candidate, is 53 years old. He is an Alabamian born and bred. Mr. Kolb served through the first year of the war as a private and then went home and organized Kolb's battery of artillery, which fought through the war. About five years ago Governor Seay appointed him commissioner of agriculture. He left the regular Democratic party in 1892.

MUCH LEAF IS LOST THROUGH DROUTH.

ROCK COUNTY FARMERS PRAY FOR RAIN.

Pleasant Social Gatherings Last Evening—Janesville Delegates in Cleveland—Many Enjoy Boat Rides—Up-River Campers Return to Town—Alderman Child Is Ill.

DAMAGE from drouth is reported from all parts of the county. Oats and barley have been ripened with great rapidity and hay has been made a short crop. Tobacco suffers greatly. The high winds and hot sun stop the advancement of the young plants, and particularly so those of the last setting. The very earliest set fields are commencing to bud and as a rule the plants are a spindling lot, probably beyond redemption even should copious showers come at once. But the medium plantings, which by the way will comprise a large proportion of this year's crop bid fair for a splendid yield under favorable circumstances. The Edgerton Reporter says: "About the only transaction in old goods we are able to report is the purchase of a car load of '92 by Pomeroy & Pelton, of Janesville packers. In the new leaf we have the following: Jonathan Palmist, 14 cases '92 at 5 and 1 1/2 cents; W. B. Crook, two acres at 4 and 3 cents.

The officers and members of the fire department acknowledge with thanks a bountiful supply of "Grand Duke" cigars from the Janesville Machine Company. The cigars were sent with the company's compliments to the fire stations this morning. The fire department is receiving praise for confining yesterday's fire to the building where it started. The officers and members of the company are highly pleased, only regretting that they were unable to extinguish the fire before it destroyed the first building.

A COMPANY of young ladies and gentlemen were entertained pleasantly last evening by Miss Myrtle C. Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Williams, 157 East street. The mandolin club was called upon for several selections. Refreshments were served, and the company enjoyed the evening thoroughly. The party was given in honor of Miss Williams' guests, Miss Mabel Wood of Baraboo; Miss Mabel Pratt, of Plainfield, and Miss Cora Carpenter, of Evansville.

YESTERDAY was Mrs. William Astin's birthday anniversary, and the occasion was marked by a large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Astin, who gathered at their home on Prospect avenue last evening. Several members of Smith's orchestra were present and furnished music for the dance which served as one of the pastimes of the evening. Refreshments were served and it was early this morning when the company broke up.

A VERY pleasant social was given by the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Patrick's church last evening on the lawn of Dean E. M. McGinley's tenement house on the corner of Holmes and Lincoln streets. The lawn was decorated with Chinese lanterns and the grounds were packed. The residence was illuminated for the occasion and the whole presented a gay and happy scene. Ice cream and cake were served on the lawn.

So many joined in the Trinity church excursion last night that two trips had to be made by the Columbia. The ride beyond Crystal Springs was abandoned and the party remained at the dance hall and kept time to Tuckwood's music.

NEW SHOP TO RISE OUT OF THE ASHES.

JAMES HARRIS MEANS TO BUILD AGAIN.

Barb Wire and Nail Business to be Carried on Without Interruption—There Was a Total Loss on the Burned Building—Janesville Machine Co. Suffered.

The Janesville Barb Wire plant is to be restored. James Harris, who with his son Arthur Harris, own and operate the plant, was seen by a Gazette reporter this morning. "I think we will rebuild," said Mr. Harris. "If we don't rebuild, of course, we will be compelled to go out of business."

The building in which the barb wire and wire nail machines were located is a total loss, and the machinery is thought to be ruined by the great heat of the fire, although some of it may be restored or made serviceable. The loss to this company will be on the building, which was a one story frame, and not wholly covered by insurance.

The Janesville Machine Company lost considerable on their frame building adjoining the barb wire building on the north and adjoining the company's brick, wood and paint shops. This was a one story frame, filled with dry material, partly manufactured. The building was not insured, and is considerably damaged, especially the roof and rear part. Manager Reynolds is unable at this time to estimate the loss. Men are at work straightening out the ruins and repiling the lumber, sorting out the burned and damaged pieces. The contents of the building were insured sufficiently to cover the loss.

Only nominal damage was sustained by the owners of buildings on the east side of River street, the incipient fires being quickly extinguished by the "bucket brigade."

FARMERS BUSY AT HARVESTING
Hot Winds Have Hurt the Oats—Grain Ripens Rapidly

There was no material change to note in the grain market during the past week except a decrease in receipts. Farmers are busily engaged in securing the hay crop, and the hot weather is ripening the grain rapidly so that light receipts may be looked for until after harvest. Two or three loads of wheat sold during the week at a range of 50 to 55 cents. Barley is quotable at 45 to 50 cents. No sales. Corn is in good demand at 40 to 42 cents. Oats saleable at 31 to 32 cents. Hot winds the past two days have proved quite injurious to the oats crop.

BRIEF BITS OF HUMOR.

More to the Purpose.
"Your husband seems to have the artistic temperament," said a lady who was calling on a recently-married young woman.
"Do you think so?" was the response, with a happy little smile.
"Yes. I should think he might have made a good painter."

"I never saw him try to paint," replied the little wife. "But he can whitewash beautifully."—Boston Globe.

Warning to Rich Girls.
Hostetter McGinnis—It does me good every time I read of a rich man marrying a poor girl.

Gus De Smith—Why does it do you good?
Hostetter McGinnis—Because then the rich girl he might have married still remains in the market, and I am looking out for a rich wife myself.—Alex Sweet, in Texas Sitings.

Mother's Darling.
Suburban Boy—Mamma asked me what was my favorite flower, an' w'en I told her "golden rod" she kissed me an' said I was poetic. Wot does that mean?
Little Girl—I don't know. Why do you like the golden rod?
Suburban Boy—"Cause it grows without any bother."—Good News.

BREAKING THE NEWS.

Briggs—Cleverton says you borrowed five dollars from him yesterday.
Griggs—And that isn't the worst of it.

Briggs—What do you mean?
Griggs—That's only half of what I want, old man.—Detroit Free Press.

ONE YEAR IN WAUPUN FOR HARRY EAVES

BURGLARY WAS THE CHARGE AGAINST HIM.

Robbery of J. B. Humphrey's Barn Near Afton Laid to Eaves and Wixom—Repeated Denials Finally Followed By a Plea of Guilty—Sentenced This Forenoon.

Henry Eaves will be confined in Waupun prison for one year, as the penalty for his crooked work at J. B. Humphrey's barn last November. Eaves was arraigned in the municipal court this morning on the charge of burglary, he being implicated with young Wixom in robbing Mr. Humphrey's carriage house of harness and other property.

He pleaded not guilty in the morning and was remanded to jail. He soon changed his mind and this afternoon was brought up again, withdrew his former plea and pleaded guilty, whereupon Judge Phelps sentenced him to hard labor at Waupun for one year. Sheriff Bear will escort Eaves to the prison tomorrow.

Bluffing.
In the mathematics class one day at Williams college Prof. S—, who was rarely made the subject of college jests, was excessively annoyed by some man "squeaking" a small rubber bladder. The noise seemed to come from near a certain Jack Hollis, and after querying each of his neighbors, and receiving a negative answer, Prof. S— said sternly:

"Hollis, do you know who is making that unbearable noise?"
Hollis, who had been the guilty person all along, assumed an air of stoical bravery, and said, calmly: "I know, sir, but I prefer not to tell."

Prof. S—'s angry face grew calmer, and with evident pleasure he replied: "I respect your scruples, Hollis. They do you credit, and should shame the guilty man, sir!"—Harper's Bazar.

Severe Measures, Indeed.
"Mrs. Chairwoman," said the lady in the club-woman's convention, "in view of an obvious tendency toward frivolous amusements on the part of some of the members, I move to enforce a severe disciplinary measure."

"State your motion," said the chairwoman.
"I move you, Mrs. President," said the lady in a voice that clearly foreshadowed trouble for somebody. "I move that all the looking-glasses and mirrors be removed from the cloakroom for six consecutive sessions."—Chicago Record.

True Love's Rough Road.
Blushing Maiden—Papa, the next time John comes he wants to see you!
Stern Parent—(not over fond of John)—What about?
B. M. (evasively)—About fifteen minutes!

S. P.—Well, you can tell the blamed idiot that I shall not require so much of his valuable time, as it will only take me about three-quarters of a second to throw him into the street.—Arkansas Traveller.

Only Two Ages.
She—I have just been reading about the seven ages of man. I wonder how Shakespeare would have described the ages of woman?
He—There would be but two ages of woman.

She—How's that?
He—Sweet sixteen and not yet thirty.—Detroit Tribune.

We Have What We Advertise.
It has come to our notice that a certain supposed competitor, who only employs the proprietor and a boy to sit around has been saying that we do not do as we advertise, and that we swindle the people. We will say for the benefit of this person and all others that we sell for less than he buys, and that we will forfeit $100 to him or any other clothing concern in the city if we do not produce in our sale suits for $7.00 that cost him 50 per cent. We are not "fakers." We advertise facts, and the big business we are doing is ample proof of it. The people know it. T. J. Ziegler.

DECORATIVE NOTES.

Paper Screens, Dressing For Beds and Laundry Bags.

Woven letters, red on white, for marking clothing and household linen are now shown set two abreast on double width ribbon in all combinations of initials.

Japanese paper screens are to be bought for a song now, but they are scarcely worth even that price, not that they are not frequently pretty and decorative, but they are very fragile. An unusually careful woman, living all alone and never receiving a guest, might possibly keep a paper screen intact for a month, but under ordinary circumstances the paper is punched through in a dozen places before that length of time elapses. If the man who delivers it at the house has not already burst it with his fingers, it is sure to be set within reach of the heels of a rocking chair, so that the first person who sits down sends the rockers through it, and if there is a projecting corner of a furniture knob anywhere about the screen falls over on it and spikes itself at the first gust of air. Black and gold cloth screens are inexpensive in these times, and it is worth the extra money to have something that will last a little while.

The fashion of dressing up beds in lace spreads and pillow covers laid over colored muslin has given way to a more artistic style of ornamentation. A silk or tinted linen spread is embroidered by hand with decorative floral or conventional designs and bordered with wide, heavy lace, or the spread is made of embroidered squares separated by drawn work and hemstitching.

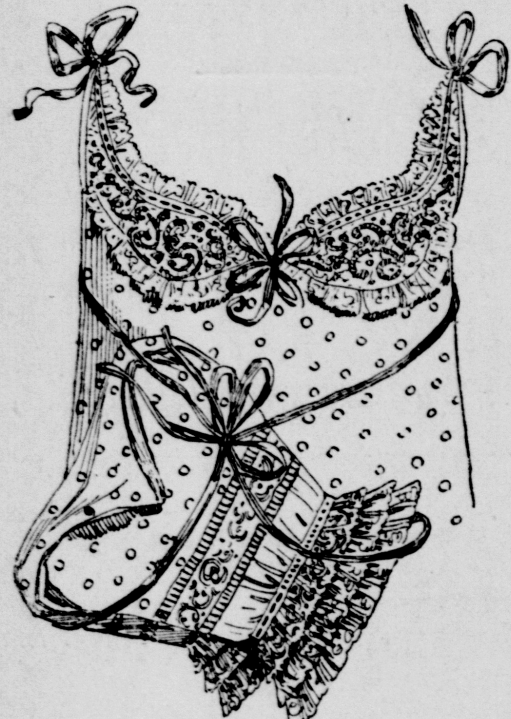

For persons who do not care to give up space to a large basket for holding soiled linen a laundry bag is the only resort. This may be made of plain ticking or may be elevated to the rank of a decorative object, and it is a laundry bag of the latter description that is illustrated. It is made of strips of heavy canvas embroidered in a cross stitch tapestry design separated by bands of colored crocheted insertion. The bottom of the bag is finished with a crocheted edge to match. The embroidered sides are divided by straight plain end pieces to make the bag capacious, and the whole thing is lined. The top of each side has small brass rings attached at intervals, through which are run brass rods which hold the bag in shape.

POOR ECONOMY AND BAD TASTE.

Muslin and Linen in Place of Silk for Underwear.

Certain young women traveling abroad several years ago during the height of the popular craze for silk underwear were not permitted by their parents to buy any of it because it was immoral—a most whimsical reason. That silk in the place of fresh, easily laundered muslin and linen is poor economy and worse taste would seem to be so sufficiently strong arguments against its use that the introduction of moral scruples would be unnecessary, even if it were not absurd as well. The notion of degrees of morality in the materials of which undergarments are made appears to be widespread, however. A certain novelist is careful to tell his readers that the particularly villainous and debased hero wore a pink silk night-shirt. This was only at the outset of his evil career. The clothing he adopted at the crisis of his infamy must have been unspeakable, for the author maintains a horrible silence concerning it. It was probably some specially noxious kind of silk for that has the most abandoned character of any goods now in use.

It may be inferred from some casual remarks of Goethe's that linen had once the same unenviable reputation, but the whirligig of time brings round many revenges, and linen is now highly esteemed and is considered indeed too cold and austere for ordinary wear. So eminently respectable is it that all aristocratic underwear, of whatever stuff it may be made, is at present called lingerie. Perhaps years hence silk, too, will conquer every prejudice except the ones founded on a practical basis.

Silk underwear is really not worth buying, except in the form of the knitted garments worn next the skin, and even then it is much better when mixed with fine wool. Silk is made up into complete sets, however, and is sufficiently fashionable to be frequently described in publications devoted to the interests of the wardrobe. China silk or pongee is usually selected as best enduring the laundering process, and it is almost always trimmed with Valenciennes lace. The material chosen for the articles illustrated was cream pongee embroidered with pink dots, and the trimming consists of lace, beading and narrow ribbon.

HARPER'S HISTORY OF THE WAR

Harper's Pictorial History is universally recognized as the best history of the war yet published. This superb work has never been sold for less than $16 to $30. It has been sold only by subscription and but a very few men have been able to buy it.

The pages are the same size as Harper's Weekly and the work contains all the illustrations appearing in that great paper during the war. The work was edited by Richard Grant White and Henry M. Alden and is authentic, complete and reliable.

We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish Gazette subscribers with this splendid history of twenty-six parts at ten cents a part. These twenty-six parts will contain over one thousand war pictures and will make two handsome volumes when bound.

Many official documents of priceless historic value are quoted in full in the copious foot notes, such for instance as Lincoln's inauguration speeches, articles of federation of the early states, constitution of the United States, ordinance of secession, and many important papers, speeches, etc. The war story is consecutive and very fascinating. The introductory chapters, leading up to the struggle, and the chapter on the reconstruction period, are by some of the first writers of the age.

AN AGED TORTOISE'S TRAVELS ENDEDHAS RECENTLY EXPIRED AT
COLOMBO.It Was One Hundred and Fifty Years Old and Had Been the Pride of Travelers for Many Decades—Measured Six Feet.

HERE ARE VERY few of the thousands of passengers who annually
pass through Colombo on their way to or from the Australian colonies or the far east who have failed to see the well-known tortoise at "Uplands." These will hear with regret that the venerable reptile which has spent some one hundred and fifty years of his life in that healthy spot has at last breathed its last as a protest against its removal inland. Its actual age was probably 200 years.
It measured six feet from snout to tail and its shell measured 4 feet 6 inches.
Its probable name is testudo elephantopis, though some erroneously speak of it as testudo indicus, another large variety. The original home of the species was the Seychelle and Mauritius groups of islands, but sailing vessels found them very convenient as a reserve of live fresh meat in the event of scurvy breaking out, and as a result they have been at last restricted to one island—Aldabra island, to the north of Madagascar. Even here they are almost extinct, and would have been so long since had not Lord Stanmore, then Sir A. Gordon, made it worth the natives' while to preserve them by demanding, in his capacity as governor of Mauritius, an annual tribute of two specimens.

THE COLOMBO TORTOISE.

The tradition with respect to the Colombo tortoise is that it was sent to Ceylon from Java, as a present to the governor, who in those days was a Dutchman. Whether that be so or no, it is certain that the creature was quite at home in 1796, when the Dutch rule was replaced by English. Throughout all the events which have occurred since those days the reptile has maintained its quiet existence, excepting for a struggle it is said to have successfully maintained against no less than seven men who endeavored to remove it to the grounds wherein an exhibition was being held, and for such little excitement as might have been occasioned from time to time by the carrying of half a dozen delighted children on its back. Recently, however, the local government acquired Uplands as a site for a graving dock, and claimed the tortoise—for which Dr. Gunther of the British museum is said to have unsuccessfully offered £10 some years ago—as part of its bargain. As soon as the work was begun the creature was moved to the Victoria park, about a mile inland, where it sickened and died in less than a month. Mr. Haley, the director of the local museum, immediately inquired of the governor whether it was to be preserved and kept in Colombo or sent to the British museum, which is said to have a claim upon it. The decision has been to retain it in the island, and the shell has accordingly been stuffed and added to the attractions of the museum in Colombo.

The Great Demon of the Marsh.

Is not a spook, but a reality. It is neither a "bugle" nor a "kelep," nor any other of those spirits which the credulous have supposed to haunt the banks of rivers and streams after dark. Its name is malaria, and though invisible, it is very terrible and infectious when it singles you. Hestetter's Stomach Bitters drives it away, nor will it attack those whose systems are fortified with the great medicinal defensive agent. The miasmatic mists of early morning, the vapors exhaled at eventide may be safely breathed by those protected by the Bitters. In the tropics where every form of malarial disease threatens the sojourner, and is particularly virulent when developed, the Bitters is the best reliance of the inhabitant.
For dyspepsia, liver complaint, lack of vigor,
a palpitant's cap; for rheumatism; nervousness, the Bitters are a sure and safe remedy.
